A HISTORY OF WOMEN IN THE WINE...

194 B.C. In early Rome, up until this point, any woman found drinking could be put to death or divorced. → 1805 - Considered the "first female CEO in France", Barbe-Nicole Ponsardin, aka, Madame Clicquot, made the sparkling wine industry what it is today: producing the first vintage wine of the Champagne region, inventing the first "riddling table" as a way to clarify Champagne, and producing the very first Rosé blend in Champagne.

↓
1844 - Englishwoman Mary Penfold travelled to Australia with her husband and bought a vineyard. After his death, she grew the business from just 80 hectares of vineyards to over 400 hectares and made Penfolds Australia's most prominent wine producer.

1911 - The First International Women's Day ←
↓
2004 - the Master of Wine Exam contained the compulsory essay topic as part of its fourth paper, 'In wine, women are more influential than men. Discuss' → 2014 - There were more women than men among the new Masters of Wine.

Château Mouton Rothschild

After a first initiative, ahead of its time, with the poster artist Jean Carlu in 1942, Baron Philippe Rothschild waited until 1945 to finally establish a tradition that would henceforth become the visual hallmark of Mouton Rothschild. From one label to another, Mouton Rothschild has thus brought together some of the most celebrated artist of their day, including Pablo Picasso, Andy Warhol, Salvador Dali, Miró and even Prince Charles, Prince of Wales.
